

Storm Praised in Dispatch Editorial

The Dispatch
January 28, 2008

"If you haven't made it to Brinkley Gym to see the Davidson County Community College Storm play, now would be a good time to do so. The Storm improved to 4-0 in the Tarheel Conference, 17-4 overall after a victory over Caldwell Community College on Saturday. The Storm also won Tuesday in front of a large crowd, showing that DCCC administrators were correct when they thought adding athletics would be a benefit for the college."