SUBJECT: Budget Update

As you know, North Carolina Governor Beverly Perdue has expressed concern regarding the state's deficit that will seriously affect 2011-2012 state budget planning, which includes community colleges, school systems, and all state agencies.

The College is strategically addressing this issue. During the January 6th Opening Session, we will share what we know regarding how the state's deficit will affect our financial planning and budgeting for 2011-2012.

Updates on 2011-2012 budget information will be maintained on the College website.
