

DAVIDSON COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

Davidson County Community College (DCCC) invites all students to submit an application for merit and need-based Foundation Scholarships. This year the college is providing one general application form for all scholarships and an online directory of the listing of scholarships available for the academic year 2010-2011. To be considered for a DCCC Foundation Scholarship, all students must complete a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). Some scholarships may require students to submit additional supporting documents (transcripts, essays, letters of recommendation, etc.) for review. Students must enroll at DCCC to receive scholarships.

The 2010 Fall Semester deadline for all scholarships is March 31, 2010. To ensure full consideration, students should submit all required supporting documents prior to the deadline. Applications will be accepted throughout the academic year; however priority consideration will be given to applicants who meet the deadline.

Steps to Applying for a DCCC Foundation Scholarships:

- Complete the FAFSA online (www.fafsa.ed.gov). Be sure to list DCCC as a college.
- Print the DCCC General Scholarship application and complete it legibly using blue or black ink. Use the list below to identify the scholarships for which you wish to apply and record the name(s) of the scholarships on the application.
- Submit the application and other supporting documents required for the scholarships to the DCCC Financial Aid Office by March 31, 2010.
