1. What responsibilities will be assigned to ensure the student learns skills applicable to the work force?

2. What are the general and specific qualifications for the position indicating whether there is a distinction between requirements and preferred abilities?

3. Provide a job description to indicate the duties and tasks associated with the position and how they will complement the learning experience.