

2017-18 Household Information Form

The Office of Financial Aid has received your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and we must complete a federal verification process. The law states we have the right to ask for information (tax return transcripts, W-2 forms, etc.), as necessary, to confirm the accuracy of this federal application. If there are differences between your application and other submitted documents, corrections will be made and processed by the government. Complete this form and return it with any other requested items.
